

Download Meroney V. City Of Colleyville

Appellant Brian Meroney appeals from a take-nothing judgment in favor of appellee the City of Colleyville and from the trial court's order dismissing appellee Jeffery James Jones, the City's Assistant Fire Chief, from the underlying suit. In three issues, Meroney contends that the trial court erred by granting the City's plea to the jurisdiction and the City's motion to dismiss Assistant Chief Jones under section 101.106 of the civil practice and remedies code.
